

Greetings Brethren

I have always wanted to try and organise a different Ladies Festival Weekend and this year has given me that opportunity.

The Channel Islands are of course 'Euro Free' with no VAT and the Hotel is in the middle of St Helier which should prove interesting to our Ladies.

The intention is to give us all a different experience.

There will be no organised events on the Friday night but we will all be free to be with friends and do our own thing until we meet up on Saturday night at about 6. pm. for the Festival Dinner etc.

I have it in mind to try and get the local Mark brethren to give us a tour of the Masonic Temple for those that are interested on Sunday but the emphasis will be for a relaxing time with friends and I hope you will be able to join Carole and me and enjoy the Island of Jersey.

From 1st April 2009 Jersey does not have a Reciprocal Health Agreement with the United Kingdom meaning that visitors from the UK will have to pay for medical treatment provided in Jersey if taken ill during their stay. Whilst emergency treatment will be provided in the accident & emergency department it is strongly recommended that you should have appropriate Travel insurance which includes cover for all medical expenses incurred during your stay including possible repatriation Carefully check your travel insurance as most policies do not cover medical expenses in Jersey
